

RESOLUTION No. 479

A resolution adopting the 2020 Capital Facilities Improvement Plan

WHEREAS, the City is in need, as part of the budgeting process, to review and adopt a Capital Facilities Improvement Plan (CFIP);

WHEREAS, the purpose of that CFIP is to annually review projects within specific areas that could be pursued with funds from the City, or a combination of City and grant funded projects;

WHEREAS, the City held a public hearing November 12, 2019 on the CFIP;

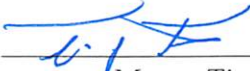

WHEREAS, the only comment received during that hearing was an inquiry as to plans for improvements to the Forks Airport, which are not included in the current CFIP;

WHEREAS, Council determined that it could proceed with the adoption of the CFIP;

THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF FORKS RESOLVES THAT:

- Section 1. The CFIP is hereby adopted as the guiding document for the City's capital improvements in the seven-year period identified; and
- Section 2. City staff are directed to utilize the Facility Plan in the development of future planning, budgeting, and implementing efforts.
- Section 3. City staff are directed to reach out to other governmental agencies to determine if additional projects and information can be ascertained as to their want for the City to partner with those agencies in the future.

Passed this 25th of November 2019 by the City Council of Forks

Mayor Tim Fletcher
